About City & Guilds

The City and Guilds is a prestigious educational organisation established in 1878 to develop a national system of technical education. Operating under a royal charter since 1900, the institute serves as the awarding body for City & Guilds and ILM qualifications, offering accredited qualifications mapped onto the Regulated Qualifications Framework. Under the presidency of Her Royal Highness, The Princess Royal, and chairmanship of Dame Ann Limb, City & Guilds advances education and professional skills through its diverse portfolio of businesses.

For 140 years, City & Guilds has partnered with individuals, organizations, and economies to identify and cultivate the skills needed for success. As a Royal Chartered Institute, we specialize in skills-based education and vocational training across five continents. By bridging the skills gap and enhancing employability, City & Guilds contribute to economic growth and develop work-ready professionals.

Benefits of City & Guilds Certifications

At Denning, we prepare our students for real-world success by combining academic knowledge with practical & job-ready skills. These industry-recognized certifications provide hands-on experience, making you more employable and marketable upon graduation. By integrating these certifications into our programs, we ensure our graduates with a valuable combination of hands-on knowledge and practical skills, giving you a competitive edge in the global job market.
